

Empowering women, driving growth.

IDENTIFYING CAREER PATHWAYS
ASSESSING SKILLS, INTERESTS, AND VALUES

“Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

Project Number: Project No.2022-2-BG01-KA210-ADU-000101717”

Co-funded by
the European Union

Make a list of the “SKILLS” that you have acquired through your academic training

- Communication: Writing, speaking, digital, and other forms of expression
- Cultural Competency: Understanding the diversity of human experiences across time and space.
- Synthesis and Analysis: Evaluating, contextualizing, and drawing insights from evidence.
- Problem Solving: Framing problems, posing good questions, and knowing how to seek solutions.
- Project Management: Systematically planning, tracking, and completing large projects.
- Teaching: Transferring knowledge or skills to others through leadership and collaboration.
- Intellectual Confidence: The ability to apply your skills and knowledge to new areas.

Co-funded by
the European Union

Make a list of the SKILLS that you have acquired through experiences other than research and teaching.

Ideas4women

- These experiences could include administrative roles, departmental service, internships, externships, workshops, volunteer roles, or mentorships.
- Leadership.
- Collaboration.
- Fundraising.
- Management.
- Negotiation.
- Networking.
- Budgeting.
- Graphic Design.
- Customer Service.
- Administration.
- Entrepreneurship.
- Social Media.
- Publicity.

Co-funded by
the European Union

Reflect upon your VALUES, especially as they concern your ideal work environment.

- Do you want to bring the arts to more people?
- Do you want to help a start-up or nonprofit get off the ground?
- Do you want to help students navigate the college experience?
- Do you want to improve public understanding of a certain region or culture?
- Do you want to help a company adapt to a changing marketplace?

Your interests can guide your career exploration by pointing you towards organizations and roles that will sustain your attention and leave you feeling more satisfied at work.

Reflect upon your VALUES, especially as they concern your ideal work environment.

- Where do you want to live?
- With what sorts of people do you want to work?
- How much do you value autonomy vs. collaboration?
- How many hours per week do you want to work?
- Do you want a predictable schedule?
- What salary or benefits do you need to live the life you want?
- What does your ideal workplace look like?
- What sorts of responsibilities do you want to have?
- Do you crave variety or stability at work?
- Do you want to work for a prestigious organization or institution?
- Do you want to travel often as part of your job?
- Do you want to manage or mentor others?

Make ranked lists that prioritize your various “SKILLS”, “INTERESTS”, and “VALUES”

- Rank your skills, interests and values in order of importance
- Consider which of these priorities are most important to you both professionally and personally
- For example, think about whether it is more important for you to have autonomy in your work or to be in a specific place. Is it more important for you to have a sense of mission in what you do?
- You can use a sensory grid list such as the one found in the book "What Color Is Your Parachute?".

Use the results of your self-assessment to guide your CAREER EXPLORATION.

- Seek fields and roles that will allow you to attain your most important;
- professional and personal priorities;
- Talk to alumni about their career trajectory;
- Read job descriptions in your field of interest;
- Read the personal narratives available through Versatile Ph.D;
- Use an externship, internship, or volunteer experience to learn more about various roles;
- Read industry publications and blogs;
- Meet with a career advisor to discuss options.

Co-funded by
the European Union

What is Career Exploration?

- Purpose of career exploration
- Steps involved in career exploration

Steps for Career Exploration

- Identifying interests, skills, and values
- Creating a list of important career aspects
- Research Viable Careers
- Job descriptions, salaries, job outlook
- Creating a list of preferred choices
- Eliminate Unappealing Careers
- Assessing education requirements, salary expectations, job security
- Speak to Professionals
- Networking and gathering information from industry experts
- Get Involved in the Workplace
- Shadowing opportunities, gaining practical experience
- Revisit Your Choices
- Evaluating and narrowing down career options

Tips for Career Exploration

- Regular self-assessment questions
- Importance of updating resumes
- Open communication with managers
- Identifying transferable skills and work achievements

Setting Clear and Achievable Career Goals

- Definition of career goals
- Importance of setting clear objectives for career progression

What is a Career Goal?

Career goals are specific, measurable achievements or points in one's professional life that one strives to reach. They define the desired professional trajectory and serve as a guide for the progress and development of the individual in his career.

Steps to Setting Career Goals:

- Explore opportunities
- Preparation and training
- Create SMART goals
- Constant monitoring and adjustment
- Access to resources and support

Steps for Setting Career Goals

- Explore the Possibilities
- Researching and exploring occupational preferences
- Compare Options
- Assessing advantages and disadvantages
- Establish Short-Term Goals
- Focusing on learning, experience, skills development
- Establish Long-Term Objectives
- Plotting a career progression pathway
- Write SMARTER Career Goals
- Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, Timely, Empowering, Reviewable
- Be Flexible and Measure Progress
- Adapting goals over time, measuring achievements

Writing Down Your Goals

- Importance of documenting career goals
- Benefits of maintaining focus and clarity

What if You're Unsure?

- Advice for those undecided about career paths
- Keeping options open and staying flexible

Questions and answers

Ideas4women

Q&A

Co-funded by
the European Union

Thank you for your attention

Ideas4women

For more information:

<https://ideas4women.eu/>

<https://www.facebook.com/ideas4women>

Co-funded by
the European Union

Empowering women, driving growth.

JOB SEARCH STRATEGIES NAVIGATING THE 2024 JOB MARKET

“Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

Project Number: Project No.2022-2-BG01-KA210-ADU-000101717”

Co-funded by
the European Union

Understanding the 2024 Job Market

- Importance of staying informed about market trends
- Identifying in-demand fields
- Embracing emerging technologies and industries

Crafting an outstanding resume

- Tailoring your resume for each application
- Making a strong first impression with your resume
- Highlighting relevant skills and experiences

Optimizing Your LinkedIn Profile

- Importance of a polished LinkedIn profile
- Updating profile with professional photo and work history
- Engaging with industry professionals and expanding network

The Art of Cover Letters

- Customizing cover letters for specific applications
- Making cover letters compelling and impactful

Effective Networking

- Leveraging LinkedIn for networking
- Utilizing personal network for referrals and opportunities

Preparing for Interviews

Ideas4women

- Researching company and role
- Practicing common interview questions
- Presenting oneself confidently and professionally

Co-funded by
the European Union

Leveraging Job Search Engines

Ideas4women

- Utilizing keywords for effective job search
- Setting up job alerts for relevant opportunities

Co-funded by
the European Union

Navigating Remote Work Opportunities

- Emphasizing relevant skills for remote work
- Focusing search on companies offering remote opportunities

Continuous Career Development

- Importance of continuous learning and skill development
- Being proactive in career development journey

Conclusion

- Summary of key points discussed
- Encouragement for proactive and adaptable approach in job search

Questions?

Co-funded by
the European Union

Thank you for your attention

Ideas4women

For more information:

<https://ideas4women.eu/>

<https://www.facebook.com/ideas4women>

Co-funded by
the European Union

Empowering women, driving growth.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND LIFELONG LEARNING

“Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

Project Number: Project No.2022-2-BG01-KA210-ADU-000101717”

Co-funded by
the European Union

Introduction

- Adoption of continuous learning as a basic principle of professional development.
- Understanding the importance of lifelong learning in today's dynamic work environment.

Importance of continuous learning

- Continuous expansion of knowledge and skills.
- Consolidation of existing skills and acquisition of new ones.
- Supporting personal and professional growth.

Principles of lifelong learning

- Retention of knowledge at higher levels through reinforcement.
- Elements for creating a continuous learning environment:
- Easily accessible learning opportunities.
- Opportunities to apply and test new skills.
- Cultivating a learning culture with sustainable practices.
- Collaboration and feedback mechanisms.

Benefits of lifelong learning

For Persons:

- Career development and progression.
- Obtaining professional licenses or certificates.
- Exploring new opportunities and perspectives.

For Organizations:

- Achieving organizational goals.
- Cultivating a culture of innovation.
- Improving employee satisfaction and retention.

Strategies for continuous learning

Structured Training:

- Formal methods such as courses, seminars and workshops.

Social Learning:

- Interaction, collaboration and learning from others.
- Self-study:
- Independent methods to improve skills.

Creating an environment for continuous learning

- Management involvement and support.
- Development of a comprehensive training plan aligned with organizational goals.
- Provision of resources, time and training opportunities.
- Examples include lunchtime training sessions, online courses, mentoring programs, etc.

Identifying appropriate courses and certificates

- Understanding Certifications, Attestations and Licenses.
- Importance of certifications for career development.
- Steps to obtain certifications and their benefits.

Creating a personal and professional development plan

- Building a road map to achieve long-term goals.
- Assessing skills, creating SMART goals and strategy.
- Focusing the mind, taking action and evaluating progress.
- The details of creating a professional development plan.

Conclusion

- Continuous learning and professional development are essential to individual and organizational success.
- By adopting a culture of learning, we support ourselves and our teams to thrive in an ever-changing world.
- Slide 11: Question and Answer Session
- Answer questions and encourage discussion about continuing education and professional development.

Questions and answers

Ideas4women

Co-funded by
the European Union

Thank you for your attention

Ideas4women

For more information:

<https://ideas4women.eu/>

<https://www.facebook.com/ideas4women>

Co-funded by
the European Union